Mr. and Mrs. Blessing handsomely entertained a number of their friends last Sunday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Umbarger, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Shelton and Mr. and Mrs. Starkey and his sister Lulu.

That "wave of prosperity" is here. From the day of the passage of the new tariff law will date the era of prosperity. Even some of our populist friends are forced to admit it, although much against their will, as it means demoralization of the pop party. With the free silver idea exploded, with wheat going up and silver down, with cattle a good price and hogs from 40 cents to 50 cents higher than they were on last election day, it is no wonder that there is consternation in the pop party.

"They don't make much fuss about it." We are speaking of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, and all stomach and liver troubles. They never gripe.—Boschert & Williams.

Pleasant Valley.

For the Benefit of those interested in Kansas Real Estate, Both for Investment and Homes, I Give Below a Partial List of Lands for Sale by Me.

No. 100.—320 acres of valley land, six and one-half miles southwest of Chanute and three miles northwest of Earlton. House in good repair; five rooms, all in good repair; frame barn for six horses, 600 three-year-old apple trees in orchard; 100 acres in cultivation; 100 acres in pasture, 60 acres in meadowland. This is one of the finest watered farms in the county. Price $4,500, one half cash, one half in five years at 7 per cent. interest. M. & W.

No. 103.—80 acres of black slope land, 40 acres in cultivation; balance in pasture and meadow-land; good frame dwelling, one and one-half stories high; six rooms; located three miles west of Chanute; one-quarter of a mile to school. Price $1,000 in five years at 7 per cent. interest. B. L. G.

No. 111.—200 acres of upland, eight miles east of Chanute; 70 acres in cultivation; good bearing orchard; never-failing spring of water; small house, two rooms; some young timber. This farm is well adapted for a stock farm and can be bought cheap, as the owners are non-resident. Price, $10 per acre; $1000 cash, balance in five years at 6 per cent. interest. Latan.

No. 113.—160 acres 14 miles east of Chanute, four miles from Stark; 120 acres in cultivation; forty acres in native grass; farm all well fenced; good soil; splendid bearing orchard; small house, small barn, cribs and outbuildings. This is a good farm. Price $2,500 cash, $13,000 on easy payments. H. Mc.

No. 114.—100 acres in cultivation; valley and slope land; one and three-fourth miles southeast of Chanute; about forty acres in timothy; good bearing orchard of about 4 acres; large two-story house, 8 rooms; good cellar and smoke house combined. This a magnificent farm, close to a city of four thousand population with the best of school privileges. Price $3,200, and a great bargain for anyone wanting a home close to market. W. J. A.

No. 117.—120 acres one and one-half miles east of Thayer, a city of 800 people; all upland; 60 acres in cultivation, balance pasture and meadow land. Land must be sold at once. Price only $1,300. This is a bargain and will not last long. N. E. L. & T.

No. 151.—80 acres of slope and bottom land, fenced and cross fenced into eight different fields; there are about ten acres of fine bearing orchard, besides three or four acres of blackberry, gooseberry, plum, etc. This is one of the finest fruit farms in the county, and is well improved in every way; house four rooms; plenty of stabling for stock and a never failing abundance of water. The price of this farm is only $1,600. This is a lovely little home. M. N.

No. 3107.—The west 1/2 southwest 1/4, 23, 29, 17, Neosho county, Kansas. 80 acres; 21 miles from Erie, the county seat, and four miles from Thayer, the nearest railroad station; for the most part smooth and tillable; 40 acres in cultivation; soil fair; 40 acres in grasses, soil not so good; fencing posts and barb wire; watered by pond and creek. Price $700. One-half cash, one-half on time at 7 per cent. semi-annual interest. R. J. W.

No. 3906.—245 acres of choice Neosho river bottom land, located 2 1/2 miles east of the city of Chanute. On this land there is about $2000 worth of saw timber, consisting of oak and walnut; there is 120 acres of the land in cultivation, the balance in timber and pasture land; there is a house of five rooms good cellar, never failing water and an excellent orchard. Never at any time during high water, has there been to exceed twenty acres of the cultivated land overflowed to any extent; this land is for sale at much below its actual value, as it frequently produces forty bushels of wheat to the acre, and from fifty to ninety bushels of corn to the acre. It is owned by a non-resident, and for this reason only it is for sale. Price, 4,500. $2,000 cash and $2,500 to be made in payments to suit purchaser. R. J. W.

No. 1000.—A choice 80 acres of upland, located four and one-half miles from Chanute. Land of choice quality; all enclosed by good hedge, and cross-fenced with wire. Sixty acres in good state of cultivation; 15 acres of native grass and about 25 acres of tame grass. There is a three roomed house, never failing well and a good cistern; a good orchard of about three acres. A school house located on the place. I have 80 acres of pasture adjoining this, all enclosed in hedge, and about half of it set in tame grass. The 160 can be sold for $2,400, or the 80 with the improvements on it can be sold for $1,400; $805 in cash, $535 can run for 24 years at 7 per cent. This is a beautiful home and located in one of the best settlements in the county. G. M. P.

No. 99.—160 acres of grass land, all smooth and tillable; four and one-half miles from Chanute. Price $1,600; $800 cash, $1000 long time; 7 per cent. interest.

No. 999.—80 acres grass land 4 miles from Chanute, all smooth land; joins No. 99. Price $1000; $500 cash, balance easy terms, 8 per cent.
